New Rector of Christ Church.

The Rev. William Jackson Morton, who, it is understood, has accepted the call extended to him by the vestry of Christ Church in this city, comes of an old and prominent Virginia family, and was born in Orange county, about thirty-five years ago. His father, Dr. C. B. Morton, a physician, now resides near Fredericksburg. Mr. Morton received his theological education at the Theological Seminary near this city and was graduated in the class of 1891, in whose ranks are also found Bishop Ingle of Hankow, China; Dr. Brown of the Brazil Mission of the Episcopal Church; Rev. Professor Messie of the Seminary, and Rev. E. M. Stiles D. D., rector of St. Thomas' church, New York city. Immediately after his graduation Mr. Morton was ordained to the diaconate by the late Bishop Whittle and appointed to St. George's Chapel, North Danville. After his ordination to the priesthood by Bishop Randolph in 1892, he accepted a call to become assistant at St. James' Church, Richmond, where he remained until 1894, when he became rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Knoxville, Tennessee. He returned to Virginia in 1896 when he assumed the rectorship of South Farnham parish, Essex county, residing at the town of Tappanhook. In the fall of 1900 he removed to Harrisonburg, and became rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church in that place, which he has just resigned, as has been stated, to accept the rectorship of Christ Church in this city. Mr. Morton married Miss Dora Moncreu, a daughter of Powhatan Moncreu, esq., of Stafford county, whose wife is a sister of the late gallant General Turner Ashby, of Confederate fame. Mr. Morton is a clergyman of much dignity of character, and is accounted an efficient pastor and a good preacher. From the excellent record he has left in the positions he has so well filled, he will soon establish himself in the affections and gain the high esteem not only of the congregation of Christ Church but also of all the people of this city irrespective of church affiliation. In this connection it is interesting to notice the loyalty of the congregation of Christ Church to the Episcopal diocese of Virginia and the Seminary near this city. Since the time of Rev. Dr. Dana its rectorship has been filled by Revs. Cornelius Walker, D. D., afterward Professor at the Seminary; R. H. McKim, D. D., now rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Washington, D. C.; A. M. Randolph, D. D., now Bishop of Southern Virginia; W. M. Dame, D. D., now rector of Memorial Church, Baltimore; Henderson Suter, D. D., who died as rector of Christ Church, and Rev. Berryman Green, recently elected to the professorship of the English Bible at the Seminary. All these clergymen were educated at the Virginia Seminary and when called to Christ Church were in the Episcopal diocese of Virginia. The same honorable loyalty to her traditions has been observed in the case of the Rev. Mr. Morton.

Robberies Reported.

A sneak thief, Sunday night, about 11 o'clock, entered the office of Dr. M. W. O'Brien, 910 Cameron street, and stole a valuable overcoat, together with a linen office coat, and a pocketbook containing a small amount of change. In the purse were two annual passes, one over the Southern Railway and the other over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. Sergeant Goods and Policeman Smith set to work on the case, and last night they succeeded in recovering most of the stolen articles in the house of a negro named Robert Williams. The railroad passes, however, are still missing.

Mrs. James F. Brafield, living at 1119 Duke street, yesterday morning reported to Lieutenant Smith that on the night of July 10 some one entered her residence and stole therefrom the sum of $285 which was in a drawer in one of the bedrooms. The money was in $10 and $20 notes. The police are investigating the robbery.

Matilda Fry, colored, living at 1200 Cameron street, has reported to the police that on Sunday night some one entered her house, at the above number, and stole two razors, one scarf pin, one pair of glasses, and also stole a small amount of money belonging to Emma Doss, also colored, who lives in the same house. So far the police have not found a clue to the robbery.

A car containing watermelons consigned to Mr. E. E. Lawler was broken open on Union street last night and robbed of part of its contents.

Fire at Jackson City.

A fire about 11 o'clock last night came near destroying Jackson City, at the south end of the Long Bridge. Several frame houses were destroyed, causing a loss of about $10,000. The fire is said to have been of incendiary origin and coal oil is believed to have been poured on the floors of the buildings burned. The burned buildings had been constructed to the east of the track after the Pennsylvania Railroad Company purchased the property at the approach to the bridge. They had been erected by Frank Foster and William C. Nelson. In one of these William Foster, a brother of one of the owners, conducted a saloon, while in another George Myers was the proprietor of the place. Frank Foster had a slot machine manufactory in the main building, and it is estimated that he lost $2,000 or $3,000 as a result of his machines being destroyed. No one was sleeping in the buildings at the time of the fire and all escaped injury.

Set Fire to a Man.

Silas Lee, colored, charged with setting fire to paper which had been pinned to the coat-tail of a colored individual named Jones on south Fairfax street one night last week, was arraigned before Acting Mayor Sweeney this morning. The evidence of a colored witness was to the effect that he witnessed the act. Lee denied the charge and said the witness had been given a bottle of whisky to appear in court and testify against him. The accused was fined $2.50, or given 10 days on the chain gang.

In Trouble Again.

James (alias Barney) Richards was in the toils of the law again this morning. For several weeks he has been a regular spectator of the Police Court proceedings. This morning he was in the dock charged with disorderly conduct in assuming undue familiarity with a lady who was talking to a gentleman on the street. The evidence of the officers and his own admission was to the effect that he was drunk. Acting Mayor Sweeney fined him $2.50, and in default of payment he will be sent to the chain gang.

Fined Five Dollars.

A colored woman named Cynthia Jackson appeared in the Police Court this morning with her face distended as a bladder and both eyes nearly closed, the result of a brutal assault, she alleged, of a negro named Wilson Reed. The evidence of witnesses corroborated her statement. Reed, in his defense, said the woman struck at him during an altercation and fell down stairs which accounted for her injuries. The accused was fined $5 or given 20 days on the chain gang.

The funeral will take place at five o'clock this evening from her late residence.

It is expected that about thirty members will go. They will be in command of Capt. James E. King. They will leave here next Saturday night on the Norfolk steamer.

Unlicensed Dogs.

The police have several people in the Court every morning charged with keeping unlicensed dogs. All sorts of excuses are urged in extenuation of delay in obtaining licenses. It costs one dollar to appear before the court, and those owning dogs will consult their interests by procuring licenses at once.

Boat Upset.

Several young men went on an excursion in an open boat with some young men last Sunday evening. While near Shepherd's the party began skylarking and the boat was upset. One of the young ladies was nearly drowned before she could be rescued by a male companion.

The "Dixie" Canopy is no experiment, but has stood the test for years, improvements having been made each year, until we can say without any fear of contradiction that it is the most perfect mosquito canopy ever put before the American people. It is easily attached to any style of Wood, Brass, Iron or Folding Bed without defacing the same. We wish to call especial attention to the size of the COILED SPRING of the Dixie Canopy Frame. It is made large enough that constant use will not weaken it and cause the frame and net to hang out over the bed, instead of going back against the headboard, entirely out of the way.
